produced by Charles B. Mintz Distributed by P.F.L. Corp

Krazy Kat is taking care of the"Lyre Bird" He falls asleep and the Lyre Bird escapes. The owner of the bird returns to make ready for the concert that evening and Krazy Kat tries to impersonate the bird.

He appears at the concert and sings "The Curse of an Aching Heart" breaking the hearts of the audience. His singing, however, becomes so bad that the audience is incensed and begins to throw things at him, breaking up the performance.

The crowd demands their money back and just then the real Lyre Bird comes in and discloses Krazy Kat as a fraud. There is much excitement and Krazy Kat is beaten up and thrown out.
